The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 27. to Saturday July 31. 1742.

AT the Court at Kenſington the 29th Day of July, 1742.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. John Lord Gower, Keeper of his Privy Seal, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Stafford;

His Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton, and of the Town of Southampton and County of the ſame;

The Right Hon. Henry Earl of Lincoln, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cambridge; and,

The Right Hon. Richard Lord Edgcumbe, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall,

Their Lordſhips this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Moſcow, June 28. Some Days ago above an Hundred Perſons (all of the common People) were taken into Cuſtody for Seditious Practices; and ſince that Time upwards of Forty of them have publickly received the Knute.

Naples, July 10. N. S. In Conſequence of what happened at Sea between three Engliſh Ships of War and two Neapolitan Gallies, Orders have been ſent to the Ships of War St. Philip and Parthenope to repair immediately from Meſſina to the Port of Baja; and Directions have been given along theſe Coaſts to be watchful to prevent any Attempt of Landing, &c. the Government being very uneaſy on the preſent Juncture of Affairs.

Rome, July 14. An Edict has been fixed up on the Part of the Government, on all the publick Places of this City, offering a Reward of 200 Crowns and a Pardon to any Perſon that ſhould diſcover the Author of a Letter ſuppoſed to be wrote by the Secretary of State to M. de Thun, which is handed about this City. On the 9th Prince della Roccella, Nephew to Cardinal Ruffo, ſet out hence Poſt on his Return to Naples, in Conſequence of the Notification from the King to all his Subjects not to leave that Capital. As a Malteſe Privateer took lately in the Neighbourhood of Corfu ſome Turkiſh Slaves, and abſolutely refuſed to reſtore them, the Venetians have ordered Reprizals to be made on the Malteſe Veſſels, 'tis thought with a Deſign to give a Sort of Satisfaction to the Porte. The Pope is extremely perplexed at the long Continuance of the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops in the Legation of Ferrara, which, as well as many other Provinces of the Eccleſiaſtical State, are thereby reduced to great Diſtreſs, and on which Account repeated Repreſentations have been made to the Courts of Spain and Naples, as likewiſe to M. de Montemar, all which have proved ineffectual.

Florence, July 21, N. S. According to the Advices we have here from the Spaniſh Army in Lombardy, the Duke de Montemar is making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to retire through the Ferrareſe to Romagnia; his Troops make a Line from Bondeno as far as Ferrara, from whence they get their Proviſions and Forrage. A Body of Auſtrian Troops is poſted on this Side the Panaro, in the Neighbourhood of Bnowporto, St. Giovanni and Conto, getting their Subſiſtance from the Bologneſe.

Florence, July 22. The Accounts of this Week from Lombardy furniſh us with little News. The Spaniſh and Neapolitan Armies remain unactive in their Entrenchments at Bondeno. They have lately removed their heavy Baggage from Faenza to Rimini. On the 12th the Marquis Luccheſini, the Modaneſe Governor of Reggio, was, by Order of the King of Sardinia, conducted in Arreſt to the Caſtle of Parma by a Detachment of Dragoons. Count de Caunitz has been appointed the Queen of Hungary's Miniſter to the King of Sardinia, in the room of the Marquis Bartolommei. On a Diſcovery that has been made, that many Emiſſaries from M. de Montemar are privately diſperſed in ſeveral Parts of this Country to raiſe Recruits for his Army, Detachments of the new Regiment raiſed out of the Militia are ordered to the different Places, where it may be moſt probable to prevent this Practice. Several People have been taken up in Florence, and a ſevere Edict is ordered to be publiſhed all over the State on this Account.

Dreſden, July 29. N. S. We have an Account by our laſt Letters from Bohemia, of the Surrender of the Caſtle of Frauenberg to the Queen of Hungary's Troops, who had continued the Blockade of that Place ever ſince Marſhal Broglio's Retreat.

Relation of the Retreat of the Swedes from Friderickſham.

On the 27th of June Feldt Marſhal Lacy ordered a Detachment of Dragoons, of Granadiers as well Horſe as Foot, and of two Regiments of Huſſars to advance to the Caſtle of Friderickſham. The 28th the Feldt Marſhal followed with the Remainder of the Army and the Artillery, and being arrived at Eleven of the Clock within two Werſts of the Caſtle, he encamp'd there, the Huſſars being encamp'd within a Werſt of the Town, and making Excurſions within Cannon Shot

1302

Shot of the Place, which very much alarm'd the Enemy. The ſaid Feldt Marſhal was going to view the Situation of the Place, to give the neceſſary Orders for a vigorous Attack to be made on the 29th: But about Midnight the Swedes ſet Fire to the Suburbs, and a Quarter of an Hour after they blew up the Powder Magazine, which encreaſed the Flames; whereby finding that the Enemy were abandoning the ſaid Fortreſs, our Huſſars entered into the Town, where they made a conſiderable Booty of Cloaths and other Things, and brought away Two Colours of the Regiment of Eſterboth, with ſome Soldiers, who had not had Time to ſave themſelves in the Confuſion. Upon the Report of Prince Cantimer, Brigadier, the ſaid Feldt Marſhal drew near to the Fortreſs with the Dragoons and Granadiers, and found all the Canon abandoned, but the Flames which continued, and the burſting of the Bombs, hindered him from going into the Town. The Priſoners report, that all the Proviſions that had been tranſported from Sweden, were conſumed by the Flames. A Swediſh Gunner taken on the 29th by the Huſſars, reports, there were 400 Gunners, and 2000 Men of the Regiments of Nullen and Bernbor in Garriſon within that Fortreſs; that there were Six Magazines of Proviſions, and that the Remainder that was left on board the Tranſport Ships, in Expectation of what might happen, had been ſent to Borgo: That General Lowenhaupt was at Summa within 10 Werſts of Friderickſham; his Army, conſiſting of 10 Finland Regiments, and 14 Swediſh, amounting to 25,000 Men, with 800 Men for the Service of the Train of Artillery, which conſiſts of 20 Cannon, from 6 to 24 Pounders, each Regiment of Foot having beſides five Field Pieces of three Pounders: That on the 28th General Lowenhaupt had held a Council of War in the Fortreſs, wherein it was reſolved to abandon the Place, which it was thought could not be maintain'd, and to carry away what they could, leaing the Canon and what could not be deſtroy'd. General Lowenhaupt has, according to the Report of the ſaid Priſoner, formed the Deſign of waiting for the Ruſſian Army at a Place named Hekfors, 18 Werſts diſtant from the Harbour of Friderickſham.

Hambourg, July 31, N. S. Baron Niehauſs, Miniſter from the Emperor to the Czarina, is arrived here in his Way to Moſcovy.

Whitehall, July 31.

By Letters of the 19th and 24th of May, brought by the Veſuvius Fireſhip, Captain Thomſon, from Jamaica, there is Advice of the Return of His Majeſty's Land and Sea Forces from Porto Bello to that Iſland, excepting ſome few of the Tranſports which were not yet arrived. And by the ſame Letters there is an Account, that Commodore Anſon, after having plundered Payta upon the Coaſt of Peru, and Realeſo on that of Mexico, taken many Prizes, and got a Booty of near Two Millions of Pieces of Eight, was ſuppoſed to be gone to Acapulco; and that five Spaniſh Ships, which were ſent in purſuit of him, were returned to Panama.

General Poſt Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Perſons, thro' Ignorance or Carleſneſs, frequently put Letters into the General Poſt Offices, and the Receiving Houſes both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the ſame Time the Poſtage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the ſaid Offices with Money and Rings incloſed, and in Fraud of his Majeſty's Revenue, divers Perſons preſume to ſend Letters with falſe and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumſtances aforeſaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Uſage of this Office paid the Foreign Poſtage, and are required by the Act of Parliament ſo to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the ſame are firſt put in.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General.
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
